NO: 3:12-0009

ORDER

Presently pending before the Court is the Motion for Summary Judgment (Docket Entry No. 104) filed by Defendant Steve Cernawsky. The plaintiff shall have until April 12, 2013, to file a response to the motion for summary judgment.

The plaintiff is advised that Rule 56(a) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure mandates that summary judgment be granted if the moving party shows that there is no genuine dispute as to any material fact and the moving party is entitled to a judgment as a matter of law. Once the defendant properly shows the absence of a genuine dispute for trial, the plaintiff must show that the material facts are genuinely disputed by citing to materials in the record, including depositions, documents, electronically stored information, affidavits or declarations, stipulations, admissions, interrogatory answers, or other materials cited by the defendant do not establish an undisputed fact or that the defendant cannot produce admissible evidence to support such fact(s).

The plaintiff is also advised that, if he wishes to dispute the facts submitted by the defendant, he must respond to the defendant's Statement of Undisputed Facts (Docket Entry No. 105) in accord with Local Rule 56.01(c), by responding to each fact set forth by the defendant by either (1) agreeing that the fact is undisputed; (2) agreeing that the fact is undisputed for the purposes of ruling on summary judgment; or (3) by demonstrating that the fact is disputed, with specific citation to the record. The plaintiff may include his responses to each fact listed on the same copy of the defendant's Statement of Undisputed Facts with which he was served, and then file that document together with his response. If the plaintiff needs more space to respond to the defendant's Statement of Undisputed Facts, the plaintiff may attach additional pages thereto.

Finally, the plaintiff is advised that failure to file a timely response to the motion for summary judgment could result in the dismissal of the claims brought against the defendant.

Any party desiring to appeal this Order may do so by filing a motion for review no later than fourteen (14) days from the date this Order is served upon the party. The motion for review must be accompanied by a brief or other pertinent documents to apprise the District Judge of the basis for appeal. See Rule 72.02(b) of the Local Rules of Court.

So ORDERED.
